

Landscape Matters:
Exploring future implications for landscape-scale conservation

13 September 2018, 10am – 4:30pm

- 10:00 Welcome
Heather Garnett – Chair, Upper Nidderdale Landscape Partnership Board
- 10:05 Introduction
David Hill (Chair) – Chairman, The Environment Bank Ltd; Commissioner, Food, Farming and Countryside Commission; Chair, Northern Upland Chain Local Nature Partnership, Chairman, Plantlife
Partnership working across landscapes
- 10:15 The role of Landscape Partnerships in linking people and place
David Renwick – Head, Heritage Lottery Fund, Yorkshire and the Humber
Giving farmers the tools to deliver conservation in the uplands
- 10:45 Upper Nidderdale
Chris Clark – Hill farmer and business consultant; Founder member and past Chair of the Yorkshire Dales Farmer Network.
- 10:55 The wider perspective
James LePage – Principal Adviser, Environmental Land Management Incentives, Natural England and Defra
- 11:15 Questions
- 11:20 BREAK
- Exploring the history of the landscape through community archaeology
- 11:40 Upper Nidderdale
Louise Brown – Scheme Manager, Upper Nidderdale Landscape Partnership
- 11:50 The wider perspective
Ken Smith – Trustee and Chair, Council for British Archaeology
- 12:10 Questions
- Rural skills training to sustain rural communities
- 12:15 Upper Nidderdale
Sophie Speciale – Development Officer, Adult Learning & Skills Service, North Yorkshire County Council
- 12:25 The wider perspective
Emma Stagg – Policy Advisor (Skills), Heritage Lottery Fund
- 12:45 Questions
- 13:00 BUFFET LUNCH
- Can local communities deliver landscape-scale conservation?
- 14:15 Workshop sessions:
- Farming
 - Cultural heritage
 - Training and skills
- 15:00 BREAK
- 15:30 Panel Discussion
- 16:10 Closing remarks
- 16:30 Conference close

Landscapes for life
.org.uk

Funding raised by
The National Lottery
and awarded by the Heritage Lottery Fund

